OBITUARY.

August Johnson.

August Johnson died at his home in Palmerston Monday night after a lingering illness. Death was due to cancer of the stomach. Mr. Johnson was a native of Sweden, but has been a resident of Montville for a long time, having worked steadily in Palmer Bros. company's quilt mill for twenty-six years. He was 58 years of age. It is believed that only two relatives survive. Peter lives in Montville and the other brother, John, lives in Boston.

Mr. Johnson was able to keep at work part of the time until about three months ago, when he was obliged to give up his work as a result of his illness and considered one of the most capable men in the carding department of the mill. Personally he was a most lovable man. Unassuming and of a retiring disposition, he had a friend in every employee of the concern. During his last illness the fellow workers have been most attentive to him and have seen that he lacked no care.

Not a bit of it! Neither has it anything to do with your heart; your trouble is only stomachic.

Those dull, distressed feelings, that shortness of breath, belching of gas and heart palpitation are all the direct result of over-eating, or indigestion.

What you need is to eat right, and then take something to make you forget all about your stomach. SMITH'S DIGESTION TABLETS are most successful in doing this; in fact, they never fail to make a hearty dinner forget a heavy dinner, or to relieve any form of distress which follows over-eating.

NO ERROR IN COPPER WIRE CASE

Accused in Case of State vs Moses Goldfaden and Others

Must Serve Sentence—Six New London County Decisions—Important One in Case of State vs W. K. Faatz—Errors Found in Three Cases.

At New Haven on Tuesday the supreme court of errors of the state of Connecticut handed down a number of decisions, six being from this county. No error is sustained, the opinion being by Judge Roraback. The plea in abatement was that the writ was not served by the sheriff of Fairfield county or any of its deputies, but by George W. Rouse of Norwich, and that he could not act only on a special occasion, and there was no special occasion in the case. The case itself, the appeal was from the decision of Judge Case, in which the plaintiff was required to pay $2 a week to the defendant as guardian of Joseph E. Kelley, grandson of the plaintiff, for his support.

Chief Justice Hall wrote the opinion in the case of Margaret S. Howe vs. the New England Navigation company, an action for damages in which no error was found. The plaintiff is administrator of the estate of Robert Swanton, who was killed on the steamship "The George" between New London and New York, and a verdict of $4,000 was awarded to the plaintiff, which the judge directed be reduced to $1,000. Attorney Perkins appeared for the plaintiff.

Chief Justice Hall's opinion in the case of George B. Pitcher vs. Christ Church corporation, an action to recover damages on contract, is that there is an error and judgment is set aside and the case remanded. This case went up from the common pleas court, the plaintiff having been awarded $150.

John Paracenti & Co. agreed to do work for Christ Church corporation for $175 and the firm assigned the claim to George B. Pitcher. The church made another contract with the firm for $25, and before the work was done at the church, A. N. Carpenter engaged Carpenter to do and paid him.

This case was taken to the supreme court by Attorney Stewart, it being his first appearance before the court.

In the case of Sherwood E. Avery vs. Charles E. White, an action to recover damages, error is found and a new trial granted. The opinion being by Judge Thayer. This is a suit over woodland and the wood removed therefrom and has been in the court some time.
